- C. Executive Committee Meetings. Meetings of the Executive Committee may be called on five (5) days written notice by the Chairman or by one-third of the members of the Executive Committee. Proxies shall not be permitted to vote on any matter by the Executive Committee. Voting by the Executive Committee shall be by voice, except that any voting member of the Executive Committee shall have the right to demand and have entered a roll call vote of the Executive Committee upon any disputed question.

ARTICLE IV. COUNTY VACANCY COMMITTEES

Section 1. Vacancy Committees Created and Empowered:

- A. Vacancy Committees shall be and are hereby organized and empowered to fill vacancies in County Central Committee officers and Precinct Committeepersons, in the designation and nomination of Republican candidate County Elective Office and in the office of any Republican County Commissioner, in accordance with relevant provisions of Colorado Law.

Section 2. County Central Committee Vacancy Committee:

- A. Any vacancy in the office of Chairman, Vice-Chairman, Secretary or Treasurer of this County Central Committee or Precinct Committeeperson, shall be filled by a County Central Committee Vacancy Committee consisting of the officers and PCPs of the County Central Committee.

Section 3. Vacancy in Designation or Nomination-County Assembly Vacancy Committee:

- A. A vacancy caused by:
 1. the failure to designate a candidate at the County Assembly; or
 2. the declination, death, disqualification, resignation, or withdrawal of the person previously designated by the County Assembly, or
 3. the declination, death, disqualification, resignation, or withdrawal of the person nominated at the Republican primary election, or
 4. the declination, death disqualification or withdrawal of a candidate for elective office after a primary election at which a nomination could have been made for the office had the vacancy then existed:

shall be filled by a County Assembly Vacancy Committee consisting of the Officers and PCPs of the County Central Committee. No person is eligible for appointment to fill a vacancy in the party designation or nomination unless the person would have met all the qualifications of eligibility to be designated to the primary election ballot at the time of the County Assembly. The County Assembly Vacancy Committee shall certify the results of its selection to the Colorado Secretary of State and/or to the County Clerk and Recorder in accordance with the law.

Section 4. Vacancy in the Republican County Commissioner-County Vacancy Committee:

- A. When a vacancy occurs in the office of a Republican County Commissioner elected at-large, or elected by all voters in the County, caused by:
1. The death or resignation of a person who has been sworn into office; or
 2. Caused by the death or resignation of a person who has been elected to a seat but who has not yet been sworn into office; or
 3. A vacancy in a party nomination occurring less than eighteen days before the general election that is caused by the declination, death, disqualification, or withdrawal of any person nominated at the primary election; or
 4. The declination, death, disqualification, or withdrawal of any elective officer after a primary election at which a nomination could have been made for the office had the vacancy then existed that cannot be filled before the general election; or
 5. A person not taking the oath of office within the time period required by law;
- The vacancy shall be filled by the County Commissioner Vacancy Committee, consisting of all eligible voting members of the County Central Committee at the time the vacancy occurs. The vacancy shall be filled until the next regularly scheduled general election. The County Commissioner Vacancy Committee shall certify the selection of a person who meets the qualifications for Elective Office to the Colorado Secretary of State within thirty (30) days from the date the vacancy occurs; except that, in the case of a vacancy filled pursuant to Section 1-4-1002 {2.5} C. R. S, the Elective Office Vacancy Committee shall certify the selection within thirty (30) days after the date of the general election affected by the vacancy; or except as otherwise required by law.

Section 5. Notice of Vacancy Committee Meeting:

- A. Notice of any meeting of any Vacancy Committee shall be distributed to each member of the Vacancy Committee by first-class mail or email at least five (5) days prior to such meeting, or in accordance with the notice provisions required under Colorado Law, whichever is shorter. Such notice shall clearly state the date, time, place and purpose of the meeting.

Section 6. Vacancy Committee Quorum:

- A. The quorum of any Vacancy Committee shall be one half (½) of the Total membership present in person. No member of any Vacancy Committee may vote or otherwise participate in any meeting or any selection or designation by proxy. If a quorum is not present at any Vacancy Committee meeting, the Vacancy Committee shall adjourn the meeting to a future date, time and place certain, within the period required under law to fill the vacancy, without republishing notice of the new meeting.

Section 7. Method of Voting:

- A. All elections of the Vacancy Committee shall be conducted by a secret ballot unless there is only one nominee to fill a vacancy. The person to fill the vacancy shall be elected or designated by a majority vote of those members present and voting. Balloting shall be repeated until a majority vote is cast for one nominee, and no nominee shall be removed from any subsequent ballot unless such nominee voluntarily withdraws.

ARTICLE V. MEETINGS OF THE COUNTY CENTRAL COMMITTEE

Section 1. Organizational Meeting:

- A. The biennial Organizational Meeting of the County Central Committee shall be held between February 1 and February 15 of each odd-numbered year, or within such time as may otherwise be required by law. The purpose of the Organization Meeting is to:
 - 1. To Elect a Chairman, Vice-Chairman, Secretary and Treasurer to the County Central Committee.
 - 2. To Elect such Bonus Members as may be allowed to the County Central Committee to the Colorado Republican State Central Committee. To the Congressional District Central Committee, and/or to the Judicial District Central Committee as provided for in the bylaws.
 - 3. To select or ratify the selection of County Vacancy Committees in accordance with these Bylaws.
 - 4. To conduct such other business as may properly come before the County Central Committee.
- B. Meeting Notice: Notice of the Organizational Meeting of the County Central Committee shall be distributed in accordance with Section 4 of this article no fewer than ten (10) days before the date of the meeting. Notice of a County Central Committee meeting shall clearly state the time, date, and place of the meeting, and, to the fullest extent possible, the business to be conducted at the meeting.
- C. If no meeting is held within the appropriate time frame for the biennial Organizational Meeting, the State Chairman of the Colorado Republican State Central Committee may issue such a call or notice, and the State Charman may personally or by nominee preside at the meeting so noticed if the County Central Committee fails to provide a Chair.

Section 2. Special Meetings:

- A. A special meeting of the County Central Committee may be called at any time by the Chairman on his own initiative or upon the written request of at least twenty-five percent (25%) of the members. If the Chairman fails to act on the request within ten (10) days, then any voting member may issue the call at the Committee's expense. Special Meetings shall be held no sooner than ten (10) days from the date the call is sent at the time, date, and place as designated by the person calling the meeting.

- B. Special meeting notice: Notice of the Special Meeting of the County Central Committee shall be distributed in accordance with Section 4 of this Article no fewer than ten (10) days before the date of the meeting to the members of the County Central Committee. Notice of the Organizational Meeting shall clearly state the time, date and place of the meeting, and the business to be conducted at the meeting.
- C. Waiver or Notice of Special Meetings: If two thirds (2/3) of the membership of the County Central Committee waive notice of the call of a special meeting of the County Central Committee, a special meeting of the Committee may be held without prior notice. Failure of the County Chair to properly provide a call for the Special Meeting shall not invalidate the need and purpose for the Special Meeting.

Section 3. Notice of all Meetings:

- A. Unless otherwise specified herein, the members of any Regular or Special Meetings of the County Central Committee shall be notified by written notice delivered by United States mail, first class postage prepaid, or electronically delivered by facsimile or by e-mail. All notices shall be directed to the County Central Committee member at her or his address (es) as it appears on the official Committee records as maintained by the Secretary.

Section 4. Form and Venue of Meeting, Electronic and Conference Call:

- A. Meetings may be held in person, in an electronic format, or in a hybrid format at the discretion of the Chairman. In the event a meeting is held in an electronic or hybrid format, proxies shall be forbidden at that meeting.

ARTICLE VI. VOTING AT MEETINGS OF THE COMMITTEE

Section 1. Method of Voting:

- A. Voice or Rising Vote; With the exception of the elections or removal of officers of the County Central Committee, or the designation or nomination of any candidate for Elective Office, all voting at meetings of the County Central Committee, or at the County Assembly, shall be by voice vote, by rise of hands or by rising vote at the discretion of the Chairman, unless otherwise provided by the affirmative majority vote of the members present and voting.

Section 2. Proxies:

- A. Designation: Any voting member who wishes to vote by proxy at those meetings where proxies are allowed shall designate her or his proxy in writing or on a written form which shall be dated, witnessed and submitted to the Chairman prior to the start of the meeting, except that no member may participate by proxy at the Reorganization Meeting or any Vacancy Committee meeting. All proxies shall apply to a single meeting. An individual designated to cast a proxy vote shall be a qualified Republican elector within the constituency represented by the principal, (i.e. proxies for PCPs shall be constituents from the same precinct) and a person designated to cast a proxy may vote only if the principal is absent from the meeting.
- B. No voting member shall designate a proxy more than three (3) times per calendar year and no designated person may carry more than one proxy per meeting.
- C. The Secretary will keep a tally of annual proxies.

Section 3. Quorum Requirements:

- A. Those members present and voting at the Organizational Meeting or at any Regular or Special Meetings of the Central Committee, shall constitute a Quorum, so long as due notice has been given or the meeting is held in accordance with these Bylaws and the Bylaws and Rules of the Colorado Republican State Central Committee.

ARTICLE VII. PRECINCT CAUCUSES

Section 1. Date and Location:

- A. Precinct Caucuses shall be held in even numbered years on the date provided for by law or the rules of the Republican National Committee at a private place in each precinct or at a public place within the County in or proximate to each precinct as determined by the County Central Committee or County officers and posted as required by law.

Section 2. Voting Members:

- A. Voting members at each precinct caucus shall have been;
 - 1. A resident of the precinct for thirty days; and
 - 2. - A. Elect by plurality vote a precinct caucus chairman and secretary to serve as officers of the precinct caucus.
- B. Elect by plurality vote the delegated and alternate delegates to the County Assembly and for such other higher assemblies and/or conventions as determined by the County Central Committee or County Central Committee officers. In the event of a tie for the last available delegate or alternate delegate, the last available place shall be determined by lot. Cumulative voting or unit rule shall not be allowed or adhered to in the election of delegates or alternate delegates.
- C. Elect by plurality vote two Precinct Committee people.
 1. The two people receiving the highest number of votes shall be elected as the Precinct Committee people.
 2. If two or more candidates for Precinct Committee person receive an equal and the second highest number of votes, or if three or more candidates receive an equal and the highest number of votes, the election shall be determined by lot by such candidates.
 3. Each Precinct Committee person shall hold such position for a term of two years after the date of his election, and each shall serve until his successor is duly elected or appointed.
 4. The names of the Precinct Committee people and delegates and alternate delegates elected shall be certified to the County Assembly of the political party by the officers of the precinct caucus.
- D. For precinct caucuses occurring in the year in which a national convention is to be held and a presidential candidate is to be nominated, or occurring in the year in which any candidate for statewide office is to be nominated, a non-binding preference poll shall be conducted for such offices and candidates as the Colorado Republican State Central Committee Executive Committee may direct as part of the business of each precinct caucus meeting, except that the Colorado Republican State Central Committee Executive Committee may direct that no preference poll be conducted. The preference poll shall be conducted, and results reported in a manner as shall be provided by the Chairman of the Colorado Republican State Central Committee Executive Committee. Only eligible precinct caucus participants may vote in any preference poll.
- E. In no event, however, shall the results of any preference poll dictate or require the proportional allocation or representation of delegates chosen for any County Assembly, higher assembly, or convention, or bind such delegates as may be chosen to vote for any candidate. The participants at each precinct caucus, or at any caucus, assembly or convention of any county or district, alone shall determine if the results of any preference poll is to be a factor in the selection of individual delegates or alternates to any higher assembly or convention, and no candidate for delegate or alternate for any higher assembly or convention shall be compelled or required to identify the candidate he or she is supporting, but may do so at his or her option.
